"We are excited to help push Glendale's trajectory of becoming a hub for tech and innovation to the next stage," Platinum Sponsor Phonexa's VP of Human Resources, Velia Murillo, states, "We look forward to meeting talented job seekers, sharing about our hardworking and fun team environment, and hopefully getting to interact with our next team members."

Tech Week event supports the Glendale Tech Strategy, which was adopted by the Glendale City Council in January 2017 as a way to develop the ecosystem of technology and innovation in the city. Attending most of the Tech Week events are free to foster greater access and discussion of tech in our community. There are three ticketed events, which are \$8 in advance, \$10 at the door. These events have food and drinks provided. A detailed schedule can be found on www.glendaletechweek.com.

A special thank you to Glendale Tech Week's Platinum Sponsors dot818, Phonexa, Glendale Arts, and Downtown Glendale Association as well as Gold Sponsors Avery Dennison, ServiceTitan, LANAIR Group LLC., Glendale Water & Power, Professional Development Center, and Applied Earth Sciences.
